Dear Class,

Today you will hear a story about two frogs who go out exploring. Do you think they will walk or take the car?

Day 2

Dear Boys and Girls,

I think that the two frogs should have kept going. They would have seen interesting new places! What do you think?

Day 3

Dear Class,

Today we will learn about hermit crabs. Do you think you would want to hold a hermit crab?

Day 4

Dear Boys and Girls,

We work hard every day and you learn more and more! It is exciting to watch you grow! At night, do you read before bedtime? yes_____no_____ If you do, make sure you have a light, even if it is a small one.

Day 5

Good Morning!

Our room has been so busy these days!

How many of you use your right hand for handwriting?_____ How many of you use your other hand?_____ Who can tell us what the other hand is called?_____

Theme 5 Week 2 Day 1

Dear Girls and Boys,

Today we will be reading a new story. What other things do you think we will be doing? We could make a long list!

Day 2

Dear Boys and Girls,

Today we will be rereading our story from yesterday. Can anyone tell us what the title is?

Day 3

Dear Children,

We will read a new story today! The main character is your age. She will show you how you could make a map of your house.

Day 4

Dear Boys and Girls,

What did you think of the world map in the story? Could you make your own room map? I am ready to get to work. I hope you are too!

Day 5

Good Morning!

We have read over 30 stories so far this year! Did you think we had read so many books?

Theme 5 Week 3 Day 1

Dear Girls and Boys,

Today's story is about a mouse who finds a sock. He thinks it will make a good house. What do you think?

Day 2

Dear Boys and Girls,

Yesterday we read The Mouse's House.
How many animals fit inside the sock?
Were there more or less than nine? Do you think it was nice in there?

Day 3

Dear Children,

Do you know how to fly a kite?
Would you like to try? Today our story is about someone who does just that.

Day 4

Dear Boys and Girls,

Give all of your work your best effort. Try a little harder each day.
Let's get to work and have a good day together!

Day 5

Good Morning!

Think about The Mouse's House, The Kite, Pine Lake, and Fun Rides. Which story would you give to a friend to read?
